Customer Reviews

I bought this for my English class, I bought it online because the price was a lot better than what the bookstore was offering. For a textbook, it's really cool! I really enjoy reading this, it doesn't read like a textbook at all, it's easy and who doesn't love Shakespeare?

This is a fine edition that boasts a wonderful complement of analysis and other worthy insights into the plays and the culture that informed them. One problem that bothers me is the exclusion of the play Cymbeline and eight of the Bard's other plays. There is no reason given for these omissions in the book so those looking for a complete edition of Shakespeare's plays will have to look elsewhere.

Best reference work for quick refresher.A very good buy that arrived in pristine condition.

Sucky class, great book.
